

CASE #5 - An Agreement for Structural Peer Review Services

ABSTRACT

A request to perform a peer review of another structural engineer's design brings with it a different responsibility than that of the Structural Engineer of Record. The CASE #5 document addresses the responsibilities and the limitations of performing a peer review. This service is typically performed for an Owner but may be altered to provide peer review services to others.